Rowan University Meal Plan Contract

Dining Dollars & Boro Bucks Frequently Asked Questions
Academic Year 2015-2016

Who is required to purchase a Meal Plan?
First semester freshmen residence hall students are required to purchase either the All-Access or 14 meal plan. All other residence hall students must select from the All-Access, 14, 10, or 7 meal plans. Students not residing in a residence hall have the option, but are not required, to select a meal plan.

How does the All-Access Meal Plan work?
This plan is designed for full-time resident students, who have a hearty appetite. It allows student's unlimited entry and unlimited meals in the Market Place each week.

How do the 14, 10 and 7 Meal plans work?
Your RowanCard (University I.D. Card) will be encoded to access your Dining Services Account. You must present your RowanCard to the cashier for entrance into the Market Place. When you enter, a meal will be deducted from your account for that week. Only one meal may be eaten in each meal zone. The week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday. As one of your meals, you may choose from selected combo options in the Food Court. Each meal plan comes with Dining Dollars that may be accessed using your RowanCard and used in any dining location on-campus and at Rowan Boulevard restaurants.

How do the 60 & 30 Block plans work?
All non-residence hall students may choose any meal plan including the 60 or 30 block plan. The Block Plan works much like the other plans except they may be used for any meal in the semester, regardless of meal zone. One meal is deducted from your account each time you eat a meal. Unlike the other plans, you may eat more than one meal in a meal zone. Blocks do not carry over from one semester to the next. As with the other plans you may use one of your meals as an equivalency in the Food Court.

How do the Dining Dollars work?
Dining Dollars are integrated into all meal plans to give you added flexibility and convenience. Dining Dollars may be used at on-campus dining locations and at Rowan Boulevard restaurants. They also may be used to supplement your meal plan in lieu of a meal or paying for a friend to eat with you. Dining Dollars expire at the end of the academic school year.

How do I cancel or change my meal plan?
First semester freshman must have either the 14 meal plan or the All Access meal plan. They can make adjustments during the first two weeks of classes only. All other students have the option to increase or reduce their meal plan during the first two weeks of classes. Cancellations of the All-Access, 14, 10 and 7 meal plans are allowed, except for students residing in a residence hall, and are pro-rated, on a weekly basis, through the first three weeks of the semester only. Thereafter, there will be no refund for the remaining weeks. The 60 and 30 block plans will be refunded on a meal remaining basis until the end of the third week of the semester after which there will be no refund for remaining unused meals. You may change to a higher plan at any time. To make changes, visit the Office of the Bursar in Savitz Hall.

Are Boro Bucks right for me?
All students may participate in the Boro Bucks program in order to enjoy the convenience of purchasing power all over the campus without cash, coins, checks or credit cards. You can add any denomination of Boro Bucks onto your RowanCard. Each time you use your Rowan ID Card, the amount of your purchase will automatically be deducted from your Boro Bucks. You can use Boro Bucks at locations all over the campus including the bookstore, laundry and all dining locations. Boro Bucks can also be used at over 75 area businesses that accept Boro Bucks. Unused balances, of $10.00 or higher, in your Boro Bucks Account are refundable only at the end of the academic year upon written request to the Office of the Bursar. Otherwise, balances in this plan carry forward to the next academic year. To add funds to the Boro Bucks account students must go to the Office of the Bursar in Savitz Hall or on-line at: myrowancard.rowan.edu.
