Missing Receipts

General

Individuals must attempt to obtain a copy of the original receipt form the vendor. Both the individual and authorized signer must sign missing receipt affidavits and authorized signer with a complete explanation of the expense if a copy of the receipt is unobtainable.

Credit Card Receipts

Cardholders are required to obtain original receipts for all transactions. If this is not possible, a missing receipt affidavit must be completed and signed by the cardholder and the authorized signer.

Airline Ticket Receipt

In the event of a missing airline receipt (last page of the ticket stub), the affidavit must be accompanied by some form of documentation. The agency issuing the original receipt must be contacted and a copy of the receipt requested. All agencies are required by the Airline Reporting Commission to keep copies of every ticket they issue.

If the traveler is unable to obtain a copy of the airline receipt, a copy of the American Express record of charge or itinerary and form of payment (either credit card statement or cancelled check) must be included with the missing receipts affidavit.

Hotel Folio

The IRS requires a hotel folio or itemized bill for all lodging reimbursements.
