

Personal Leave Bank (PLB) Reminder: CWA and IFPTE bargaining units

Pursuant to the adoption of an amendment to the New Jersey Administrative Code 4A:6-1.2, paid leave bank days (PLB) should be used through June 30, 2011, subject to operational needs. Approval for the use and scheduling of these days shall not be unreasonably denied.

All supervisors who have employees in the CWA and IFPTE units that have remaining PLB days, need to work with their employees to schedule and use these PLB days prior to June 30, 2011. If for business necessity an employee cannot use these prior to 6/30/11 then the days must be used by 6/30/12 or they will be forfeited.

Employees in the AFT bargaining unit with PLB days are not affected by the NJAC provision change.
