

CONTEMPORARY WORLD PROBLEMS

BRUSSELS BELGIUM

WITH ROWAN UNIVERSITY

DATE: MAY 23 - JUNE 13, 2010

PROGRAM PRICE: $4,175 (+ REFUNDABLE SECURITY DEPOSIT)

STUDENTS WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN AIRFARE

APPLICATION DUE DATE: FEBRUARY 12, 2010

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- 3 Rowan credits
- Airport transportation
- Accommodation in Belgian homestays with laundry service weekly, breakfast daily, and dinner Monday - Friday
- On-site orientation
- Health insurance
- 2 group meals
- Internet access (including wireless) during office hours
- Cultural excursions to include transportation, entry fees and guides to Antwerp, Ardennes Battlefields, The Hague and Berlin

NOT INCLUDED

- Airfare
- Passport
- Personal expenses

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Contemporary World Problems:

Europe stands at a crossroads of political, economic, and social change. Will it continue to develop and challenge the United States for global dominance, or is a less confrontational path in its future? This course will examine the following issues within that context: human rights, immigration, historical legacies of World Wars 1 and 2 and the Cold War, European Union politics and enlargement, environmentalism, and democracy.

For more information and obtain an application contact:

Dr. Spencer B. Meredith, III
Department of Political Science
585.957.5217
merediths@rowan.edu

Stacey-Lynn Mulligan
International Center
856.256.4500 x3105
mulligans@rowan.edu