

61-74

(R)

NOV 16 1943

Dear Sir:

Enclosed for you are two copies of the report and the information regarding the activities of the [redacted] during the period [redacted]. The information was obtained from the [redacted] and the [redacted].

Very truly yours,

[Redacted signature block]

[Redacted name]

[Redacted title]

[Redacted address line 1]

[Redacted address line 2]

[Redacted address line 3]

[Redacted address line 4]

[Redacted address line 5]

[Redacted address line 6]

[Redacted address line 7]

[Redacted address line 8]

[Redacted address line 9]

[Redacted address line 10]

[Redacted address line 11]

1. Concepts and methods of development economics and other theoretical issues

- i. Characteristics of less developed countries
- ii. Characteristics of the process of development
- iii. Characteristics of the region
- iv. Theories of industry

2. Technological and economic theories of development

- i. Evolution of economic theories
- ii. Positive theories

3. Factors and sources of increase in output per unit of input

- i. Capital formation and technical progress
- ii. Investment in labor force quality
- iii. Entrepreneurship
- iv. Scale
- v. Population

4. Alternative sources of resources for investment

- i. Domestic saving
- ii. Mobilizing surplus resources
- iii. External financial policy
- iv. External finance

5. Allocation of resources

- i. Methods and mechanisms
- ii. Capital vs. labor intensive methods
- iii. Industrial allocation
- iv. Inflation

6. Development policy

Trade and industrial development

Government policy

7. International

Role of international organizations, regional cooperation, and the role of the state in development.

8. Conclusion

Summary of the main findings of the study in the field of development economics; the role of the state in development; the role of international organizations, regional cooperation, and the role of the state in development.