DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
Proposal for Curriculum Changes

I. DETAILS

- A. Change General Education Curriculum from the curriculum shown on OLD to the curriculum shown on NEW.
- B. The changes were approved by the department on May 15, 1983.

II. RATIONALE

- A. The changes comply with the new General Education model.

Since History is a broad field that synthesizes the work of many scholarly disciplines but concentrates on the various social sciences, it is imperative that a history major have a knowledge of both the processes of thinking and the concepts of all the social sciences. In addition the major is expected to integrate the humanities with the social sciences. The more arbitrary requirements for general education also will improve the major's employment opportunities after graduation.
