HUMAN BIOLOGY

MINOR CURRICULAR CHANGE

CHANGE IN HEGIS NUMBER AND RESTRICTION IN ENROLLMENT

1. DETAILS:

a. Change Requested:

From: Current Hegis number : 0401.340

To: Proposed Hegis number: 0401.1xx

b. Sponsors: Department of Biological Sciences

Joanne Scott, Ph.D., Undergraduate Academic Advisor

Richard J. Meagher, PH.D., Dept. Chairperson

2. RATIONALE:

a. Statement of Need:

For the change in Hegis number:

This course is a General Education course designed for non-science majors. The level of understanding of basic biological principles in which the material is presented is clearly Freshman-level. How the course ever got a 300-level hegis number is a mystery. Its "companion" general education course, Introduction to Natural Resources, has, appropriately, a 100-level hegis number.

b. Statement of Curricular Effect:

This change will only affect biology majors and the few non-science majors who are seeking a non-lab biology course after completing Human Anatomy and Physiology I. The latter type of student could take Introduction to Natural Resources.
