Minor Curriculum Changes (Title and Hegis Number)

1. DETAILS:

a. Changes requested:

(1) To change the title of the history course "Japan since Tokugawa" (2205.536) to "Modern Japan."

(2) To change the level of the above mentioned course from a first-year graduate course to a fourth-year undergraduate course, with few changes on its content, and to obtain an appropriate Hegis number.

b. Sponsor:

Dr. Q. Edward Wang, History Department

2. RATIONALE:

a. Statement of "need" for these changes:

The main reason for the title change is that the new title more accurately describes the content of the course and appeals to the general public. It helps students to understand the time period of the course coverage.

The reason for lowering the level of the course is that currently there is no graduate program in the History Department. Keeping its status at the graduate level prevents students from taking it.

b. Statement of curricular effect:

Since these proposed changes do not affect the content of the course but help enrich the current curriculum of the department, their effect is to be positive. "Modern Japan" will be added to the upper-level and global history elective bank.

3. RESULTS OF CONSULTATION:

Dr. Gary Hunter, the chairperson of the History Department, has been consulted with these changes. Dr. Hunter endorses these changes.
