MINOR CHANGE

1. Details:
 - a. Title change from "General Economics" to "American Economic System"
 - b. Prerequisites: none
 - c. Sponsor: Department of Economics Faculty

2. Rationale:
 - a. It better describes the course content, and it will be more attractive to students looking for a course to satisfy general education requirement.
 - b. Curricular Impact: none

3. Results of Consultation:
 - a. No consultations were sought, given the very minor nature of the change.

To: Liberal Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee
From: Ben Hitchner, Chair
Date: October 16, 1997
Subject: Minor Curriculum Change

The Department of Economics is resubmitting a proposal for a minor change, see enclosed letter dated November 21, 1994. We are requesting that the title of our General Education course, General Economics be changed to The American Economic System. Enclosed is the updated required format for minor changes. The catalog description remains the same. The course syllabus remains unchanged.
