Minor Curricular Change

1. Details

- a. Change requested: Prerequisite change 2204.360
Urban Economics

From: 2204.101 An Introduction to Economics-A Macroeconomic Perspective and 2204.102 An Introduction to Economics-A Microeconomics
Perspective or instructor's permission

To: 2204.102 An Introduction to Economics-A Microeconomic Perspective or instructor's permission

- b. Sponsor: The Department of Economics.

2. Rational

Urban Economics consists of application of microeconomics theories (2204.102) in Urban issues. Knowledge of macroeconomics (2204.101) is not needed. Hence, this change will no longer preclude students without 2204.101 for taking the course. The change will thus allow a larger number of our Economics majors to enroll for the course. Students from other departments with 2204.102 will also be able to take the course. This change will particularly attract students from the Geography and Sociology departments.
