Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement

Policy Statement

It is the policy of Rowan University to ensure equal employment opportunity in accordance with all applicable local, state and federal regulations and guidelines. Employment discrimination against employees and applicants due to race, color, religion, gender (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, military status, veteran status, and any other category protected by applicable law, is illegal.

Managers and employees will comply with local, state and federal equal employment laws, rules, regulations and guidelines. Any employee that deliberately violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Employees or applicants who believe that Rowan University has discriminated against them in employment should report it immediately to the Office of Equity and Diversity in Linden Hall. It is important to note that employees and applicants may raise such concerns without fear of reprisal or retaliation.

Plan

Recruitment – Rowan University will exercise good faith efforts to recruit a diverse group of employees and provide equal opportunity for all protected class members.

Selection – Rowan University will utilize a hiring process that is fair and does not have an adverse impact on members of the protected classes. Prospective employees will not be excluded from the hiring process due to race, color, religion, gender (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, military status, veteran status, and any other category protected by applicable law.
Employee Orientation – Rowan University will provide newly hired employees with basic employment information, including available fringe benefits and company policies and procedures. Employees will not be denied fringe benefits and/or opportunities for promotion based on race, color, religion, gender (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, military status, veteran status, and any other category protected by applicable law.

Training – Rowan University makes every effort to train its employees about its equal employment opportunity obligations under state law.

Employee Evaluation – Rowan University will conduct performance evaluations without regard to race, color, religion, gender (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, military status, veteran status, and any other category protected by applicable law.

Employee Discipline – Rowan University will not unfairly discipline an employee based on race, color, religion, gender (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, military status, veteran status, and any other category protected by applicable law.

EEO Monitoring Strategies – Rowan University understands this plan and will hold itself accountable for the effective implementation of this plan.

Minority Business Enterprise Solicitation Strategies – where possible, Rowan University will make a good faith effort to solicit business from certified minority and/or women-owned businesses (MWBE).
