

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES PROGRAM

The Women's and Gender Studies program at Rowan University offers an interdisciplinary and global concentration that explores what we know about gender in the complex contexts of culture and society. Each student enrolled in the Women's and Gender Studies program is required to complete 18 credit hours. They must take: 1) the core course, Women and Gender in Perspective (INTR 01.130); 2) 15 credits of approved Women's and Gender Studies courses (First and Second Tiers), of which 9 credits must be from the First Tier.
