Board Update

Many thanks go to Dr. Joanne Damminger for her service as the Institutional Representative (IR) for the Women's Professional Network of Rowan University since 2004. Under Joanne's leadership, the organization was awarded the New Jersey Outstanding Chapter Award for 2007. Please join us in recognizing Sue Hersh who will assume the duties of the IR this summer. We are excited to have Sue as the IR while Joanne continues to serve on the NJ ACENET Board of Directors and represent Rowan University at the state level.

Call for New Faculty Mentors

Frances Johnson

Director, Faculty Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning

johnsonf@rowan.edu

Extension: 4079

This fall new faculty will join our ranks, and they will be in need of your expertise and your wisdom. As faculty with a record of success at Rowan, you have a great deal to offer these new members of our community. An additional benefit of mentoring a new faculty member is the sense of renewal, friendship, and collegiality you will experience.

If you are interested in meeting with a new faculty member in your college (but not in your department), sign up for the Faculty Center's Mentoring Program. Email johnsonf@rowan.edu to receive a questionnaire to fill out. It will be used to match you with a member of the 2007 cohort. The Center will provide you with suggestions for establishing a productive relationship and free coffee & snacks for your first meeting.
