Join the Women's Professional Network of Rowan University for Women at Work: Managing Challenging Times, a morning of discussion and conversation designed for personal and professional development.

Keynote speaker Linda Parthemer will discuss strategies on how to deal with challenging situations in the workplace, including interaction with colleagues and supervisors, conflict resolution, communication, and creative ways to have fun at work. According to Ms. Parthemer, "we spend at least two-thirds of our waking hours dedicated to work activities, no wonder so many of us want to have fun at work".

$ 25.00 Registration Due March 13
