Rowan University WPN SPRING WORKSHOP Friday April 27, 2012 Rowan Hall Auditorium

Finding Your Voice Dr. Judith Coché, PhD., ABPP

Dr. Judith Coché will present on “Finding Your Voice”. The presentation will assist workshop participants in finding their voice in their personal and professional lives along with stress management tips and making relationships work.

Dr. Coché is a nationally recognized expert on intimate relationships for single and coupled adults who has been featured on such national TV programs as recently as 2007 including The Today Show, Good Morning America, and Oprah Winfrey. Her work has been featured as the cover story, “Can This Marriage Be Saved?” in New York Times Magazine in August 2007.

Dr. Coche is called upon daily to advise families, couples and successful single women on building the relationships they want but are unable to achieve.

Dr. Coche is the founder and owner of The Coche Center, a Practice in Clinical Psychology in Philadelphia.

A Clinical Supervisor for the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy, and a Certified Group Psychotherapist, she trains colleagues as Clinical Professor of Psychology in Psychiatry at The Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania. The American Board of Professional Psychologists has awarded her the Diplomate in Clinical Psychology.

The Women’s Professional Network (WPN) of Rowan University is affiliated with the American Council on Education (ACE) and the New Jersey ACE Network and the Office of Women in Higher Education (OWHE). For details about Rowan’s campus chapter please visit www.rowan.edu/womensnetwork
