Rowan University Self Study Update

Volume 1, Issue 7

Background

There has been a lot of progress since our last RUSS Update. All of the working groups submitted their first drafts of the self-study document to co-chairs Pat Mosto and Don Stoll. The revised draft will be available on the RUSS webpage on March 20, 2008. That web address is: www.rowan.edu/president/selfstudy/

In the meantime, please mark your calendars for three Open Forums. We look forward to sharing what we have discovered about Rowan during this self-study. We also look forward to soliciting your feedback and comments regarding the document. Please access our webpage and read the draft document after March 20.
