RATIONALE

- A. The MBA core curriculum requirements changed last year to remove Advanced Operations Management as a required course and to add Managerial Decision Making Tools. Since the Integrative MBA Seminar is a capstone course, we needed to change the prerequisites.
- B. To increase student scheduling flexibility and to allow students to graduate within a timely manner, this proposal will allow students to complete their core course requirements concurrently with the Integrative MBA Seminar course.
- C. These change will not impact the quality or rigor of the course.

CURRICULAR EFFECT

- A. There is no programmatic change associated with this proposal.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Integrative M.B.A. Seminar

HEGIS Number: 0501.521

Prerequisites:

- a. Completion of or concurrent with all core courses in the MBA curriculum:
  - 0501.518 Integrative Managerial Skills
  - 0506.500 Organization Behavior
  - 0507.500 Managerial Decision Making Tools
  - 0702.500 Issues in MIS
  - 0509.500 Marketing Management
  - 0506.502 International Business and Society
  - 0504.500 Financial Decision Making

- b. OR Permission of the instructor

A capstone course for the M.B.A. program, it aids students in reinforcing and integrating core courses by studying strategic audits and process analysis techniques. Student projects will use teams to analyze how organizations use people, operational management, information systems and financial measurements to achieve strategic and operational effectiveness.
