Changing Pre-requisites for Selected Topics in Management I: 0506312

DETAILS

a. Changes From and To:

Change From: 57 semester hours and Management Specialization student

Change To: 45 semester hours and College of Business student

b. Sponsors:

Dilip Mirchandani, Department of Management/MIS

Kathleen Pereles, Department of Management/MIS

RATIONALE

- a. The Management/MIS Department is requesting this change in order courses to more students in the College of Business. These courses are designed to provide Management students with information about critical economic situations which change the way Management is practiced (e.g., new technology, 911, Enron scandal, etc.). The courses are not offered on a regular basis; and therefore, when the courses are offered, all students who are studying for careers in the business world should be able to enroll in them.
- b. There will be no curricular effects on the Management program, the Management/MIS Department, or on the other curriculum available in the College of Business (COB). The course is now an elective for the Management curriculum. However, there is ample room in the courses for students in other COB curricula.

RESULTS OF CONSULTATION

No consultations are required for this change.
