

Awarding of Posthumous Degrees

In certain rare instances, Rowan University may award a posthumous degree. In such cases, students who have earned a minimum of 90 credits toward their bachelor's degree (or 75% of the credits necessary for a master's degree) and have been in good standing at the time of their death may be eligible to receive a posthumous degree. Each case will be handled individually and the dean must request that a posthumous degree be conferred. Such degrees will be considered for award only in the academic year in which the student would normally have graduated.
