

Closed Course Sections

Students may only register for a closed section of a course if the professor of that course signs a “Professor’s Permission to Override a Closed Course” form. The completed form must be returned to the Registrar’s office by the student during the registration period. Overrides are not accepted after the drop/add period ends. Neither the Registrar nor The Graduate School maintains wait lists.