

Undeclared Major

Matriculated students may enroll in courses as undeclared until they earn 60 credits. After students have earned 60 credits, they must either declare a major or receive approval from the undeclared major Status Appeals Committee to take additional courses.