Comments:

A thirty (30) credit Rowan residency is required

10) NON-PROGRAM COURSES: Music Education

For Music Education, the non program courses are general education classes that are not associated with the education core of twelve credits. This brings the total to 60 credits for the state education requirements for teacher education candidates. In music, they are specified to meet both the state and accrediting agency requirements (NASM).

11) Non-program courses for Music:

Non-program courses are intended to provide an understanding of and appreciation for disciplines outside the major program of study.
Any non-remedial course offered outside the Department of Music can be considered a non-program course.
