

Rowan University Learning Connections Inventory (LCI) Access Protocol

Rowan University is pleased that all employees can be part of a program to discover their personal learning patterns by taking the Learning Connections Inventory (LCI) via the Internet. This instrument will help individuals to learn about who they are as learners and how this awareness can contribute to understanding and conversation in and out of the workplace.

To Complete the Learning Connections Inventory (LCI)

1. Login to Self Service Banner at www.rowan.edu/selfservice
2. Select Professional Development from Employee Menu
3. Select Take the Learning Connections Inventory
4. Select Continue
5. Acknowledge, select Continue, the security warning
6. You will be redirected to the Learning Connections Resources website. Complete the profile, select a password, and choose Create Profile
