

Minor in Health and Science Communication

Academic Program Guide for New First-Year Students (Effective Fall 2026)
 Program on Health and Science Communication; Professional Advisor: Alicia Groatman
 (groatman@rowan.edu)

Students who entered Rowan University prior to Fall 2026 should follow the guide for their program and start-year in consultation with their advisor.

Program Description: The minor in Health and Science Communication prepares you to work in health and science, facilitate public engagement with complex information, and advocate for life-saving and sustainable change. Learn to analyze communication practices and language to better understand scientific controversies, clinical problems, and public health strategies. Feed your curiosity. Engage the public. Advocate for change.
