

LIBERAL STUDIES

Customize Your Degree

How Does It Work? Select either 1 (one) Program A sequence and 1 (one) Program B sequence, or choose any 2 (two) Program A sequences. We have fulltime professional advisors to assist with sequence and course selection!

Sequence A

Africana Studies, American Studies, Applied Spanish, Economics, Geography, History, Law & Justice, Philosophy, World Religion, Political Science, Sociology

Sequence B

Advertising in the Workplace, Applied Computing, Art History, Asian Studies Dance, English, Health Studies, Journalism Mathematics, Perspectives of Business, Physical Science: Chemistry, Physics, Public Relations in the Workplace, Theater, Urban Studies, Women's & Gender Studies, Writing Arts

WHAT IS LIBERAL STUDIES?

The Liberal Studies major is designed to offer students the opportunity and freedom to pursue multiple areas of study in the humanities and social sciences and beyond. As part of this degree program, students choose two academic areas (sequences) and combine them into one comprehensive Bachelor of Arts degree. We are an interdisciplinary program focused on providing students personalized educational opportunities and fostering critical skills applicable to any field.

Learn more

WHY CHOOSE LIBERAL STUDIES?

In today's rapidly evolving job market, a multidisciplinary degree in Liberal Studies offers a comprehensive worldview and competitive edge allowing you to cultivate and enhance in-demand skills critical to any career path or job market. The sequences in our program provide coursework focused on skills such as critical thinking, adaptability, interpersonal communication, writing, research and analysis, ethics, collaboration, and leadership. Opportunities for experiential learning provide students with marketable professional and collaborative experiences. As part of the Center for Interdisciplinary Studies and the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, students have access to many resources such as career fairs, networking and career development events, professional advising, and the Center for Professional Success.

The average employee in the U.S. changes careers 3-7 times during their lifetime! An interdisciplinary degree prepares you for these transitions and opens up countless opportunities setting you up for long-term growth and success! Liberal Studies students are both career ready and life ready!

LIBERAL STUDIES QUICK FACTS

“After transitioning into the major I realized I was gaining a wide range of knowledge and information that has supported not only my ability to communicate and work with others but has allowed me to make connections in the field. Since the liberal studies program has a holistic view on education, it was the right choice for me and I gained a lot of value and written and oral skills in the process.”

Abby '21

“My Liberal Studies degree prepared me for the workforce by helping me to become a well rounded individual in multiple important areas such as communication and professionalism. My degree allows me to think outside the box in my current role and helped me to accomplish my career goals.”

Valentina '22

Employer Snapshot

Amazon, Bancroft, Borgata Hotel Casino & Spa, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Comcast Corporation, Fulton Bank, Liberty Mutual Group, Lockheed Martin Corporation, New Jersey Courts, PayPal, PNC, Rowan University, Six Flags Great Adventure, State of New Jersey, State of Delaware, Subaru of America, Inc., TD Bank, Temple University, Thomas Jefferson University Hospital, United Advocacy Group, UPS, Virtua

Potential Career Paths

Our Liberal Studies graduates have gone on to pursue exciting opportunities in a variety of careers and industries including:

Behavior Assistant
Business Owner
Case Management
Consulting
Community Organizer
Councilman
Counseling
Education
Family Support Worker
Grant Writer
Human Resources
Intelligence Analyst
Investigator
IT Analyst
Product Marketing
Law Enforcement
Media Specialist
Personal Training
Project Manager
Reentry Specialist
Student Affairs

Adaptability, flexibility and agility are must-have skills for new hires, and graduates who possess them will likely be well-primed to meet the demands of a global economy. And for those planning to take on leadership roles, these qualities are critical for successfully guiding employees” – Forbes