

CUGS in Queer Theory (U260)

Effective Fall 2024

Philosophy & World Religions (philosophy@rowan.edu)

Advisors: Dr. Whitney Cox (coxw@rowan.edu) & Dr. Ed Kazarian (kazarian@rowan.edu)

The Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS) in Queer Theory is designed to complement and enhance a student's major, as well as to prepare students for graduate studies and professional careers. This certificate will expose students to queer theoretical approaches and teach them to apply these approaches across multiple disciplines. A certificate in queer theory will therefore appeal to students across the Rowan campus, particularly those already interested in Women's & Gender Studies programs. Students can choose courses from the bank that most appeal to their interests, developing deeper understandings of gender, sex, and sexuality, and how they play out in the world today.
